WORLD'S RECORD GOLF MATCH

Sawyer Defeated Markwell on 42nd Hole After Having Been Down on 27th-Southern Contender Eliminated-Other Matches Slow.

Chicago, July 11 .- A world's record extra hole match was staged today in the second match round of the western amateur golf championthe western amateur golf champion-ship at Midlothian, Ned Sawyer of Bobolink club, Chicago, defeating Robert Markwell, Yale University star, on the 43nd hole after having been five down at the 27th hole. It par golf for the veteran Sawyer western champion in 1906, to over his younger opponent, who was mie three after 33 holes of spiene. golf, but the strain finally told on the young collegian.

The other matches were not close and three were one-sided.

Francis Ouimet of Boston defeated J. T. Henry of Chicago, 4 and 2, in a rainy finish. The former national champion barely kept square on the first nine with a 37, one over par, but gained three holes on the second nine. Henry again held his own on the third nine, but slipped a hole on the last lap, losing 4 down and 2 to go. Kenneth Edwards eliminated Reuen Bush, the last southern contender, and 2, the former southern cham-lon never gaining a lead over the Midlothian player.

Jack May, Argentina champion, had no trouble in ousting E. Hoover Ban-kard of Chicago, 6 and 5, and Peter Burnett downed his fellow Chicagoan, K. J. Pederson, 3 and 2. In a runaway affair, Jesse P. Guilford, Massachusetts champion, de-feated G. Decker French of Rock Isl-and arsenal, 13 to 12, being 10 up at the end of the first round.

In another lop-sided contest, Don-ald Edwards, of Midlothian, medalist in the qualifying rounds, defeated 10 up and 8, the only British contestant. J. S. Worthington. John Anderson of J. S. Taftville to Have Team.

That Taftville is to be represented by some basebull team for the remainder of the season is shown by the team that Manager "Jake" Benoit has assembled for their first game in Moosup Sunday. Benoit's All Stars as the team is known is composed of the cream of semi-professional players in the eastern part of the state. Adams ib.
